Founded in 1996 as a network of area commercial real estate professionals, Triangle CREW is made up of 200+ members employed in a wide range of disciplines within the industry. Through this network, connections are made and relationships are built, and the results can range from the precise identification of the right individual to make a deal happen to the creation of a comprehensive project team. Through the national CREW Network, TCREW members have further access to more than 8,000 CREW members across the US and Canada. Accessibility to this national base enables TCREW members to be uniquely responsive to their local customers with national platforms. In addition to facilitating networking, Triangle CREW also presents opportunities for leadership training, professional development and personal growth.
